

CAREER SERVICES

As a Tufts University School of Engineering student, our Career Center can help you set professional goals and develop strategies and skills to achieve them. Whether your destination is the private, public, or non-profit sectors, or academia, there are many resources you can leverage to position yourself for success!

See an Advisor

Schedule an appointment to explore career paths, develop your professional goals, and learn about job and internship search strategies.

Expand Your Network

Build connections and form your professional community through a career conversation or attending an event.

Sign Up for Handshake

As a student or alum, you can create an account to learn more about job opportunities, attend career events, access career-building resources, and network with peers.

Join The Herd

This flash mentoring program is designed to provide real-world, beyond-the-classroom exposure to connect students with alums, parents, and friends.

Explore a Career Community

Our Engineering, Technology & Physical Sciences community is a great starting place if you're interested in solving tough, real-world problems through hardware, software, or science.

Drop in to the Career Lab

If you're on campus, you can stop by in person and get answers to quick career questions. Virtual options are also often available.

Check Out Our Podcast

From Here to There features our career fellows discussing a variety of career-related and professional development topics.

Watch a Professional Development Webinar

Check out a presentation spanning topics from personal marketing materials, job search, networking, and more.

Access Identity-Based Resources

Peruse our featured articles and opportunities related to various affinities and identities.